

Weddings In Society Fill the June Days

SOCIETY GOES TO COUNTRY PLACES FOR SOCIAL EVENTS AND IMPORTANT WEDDINGS

Miss Caroline Stevens Arranges for Her Marriage to Mr. Edward B. Condon—Miss Marie G. Grymes to Become Bride of Mr. D. R. J. Arnold.

SOCIETY'S spring season has come to an end and there are not great social inducements to remain in city homes. Suburban life is well under way and houses at the resorts are filling up rapidly. Even weddings in the city are becoming rare, and the majority of those arranged for the remainder of this month are to take place at country places.

One of the weddings late this month, while a simple one, will be of much interest to society. It will be that of Miss Caroline Stevens, second daughter of the late Richard Stevens and Mrs. Stevens, to Mr. Edward B. Condon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Condon of this city and Southampton, L. I., which will take place on June 20 in St. Bernard's Church, Bernardsville, N. J.

The guests will include, in addition to relatives, a few young friends of the two families. As the country home in Bernardsville of the bride's family was destroyed by fire more than a year ago, the small reception to follow the marriage ceremony will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Otto Wittmann, the bride's aunt, whose namesake she is.

Miss Stevens, who went to Europe in April, is sailing to-morrow for New York. She is a member of the Stevens family that for generations has been identified with Castle Point, Hoboken, where their home, known as the Castle, yet exists. It was the bride's grandfather who was the founder of the Stevens Institute in Hoboken. Mr. Condon's sister, formerly Miss Gwendolyn Condon, now is Mrs. Philip D. Armour.

A wedding in Staten Island next Wednesday evening will be of interest here and abroad. The bride will be Miss Marie Medora Grymes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Randolph Grymes, and her marriage to Mr. David Ralph Jacques Arnold will take place in Christ Church, New Brighton. The Grymes family for years has been identified with Staten Island, where formerly they held great places, and Grymes Hill was called after them.

The bride is the namesake of her father's cousin, the Marquis de Mores, formerly Medora von Hoffman, who was considered a great beauty in her day. The late Marquis de Mores was a picturesque figure in New York society thirty years ago, and after that he went to live in France. His elder son now lives with his mother, Mrs. John R. Mores, and son Count Paul de Vallombrosa. Mrs. Arthur W. Walte will be her sister's matron of honor. The other attendants will be Mrs. Harold J. O'Connor, Mrs. A. Lewis Starke, Miss Helen Bogert and Miss Catharine Arnold. Marie Suzette Walte and Arthur W. Walte, Jr., niece and nephew of the bride, will serve as flower girl and page. Mr. Alfred D. Arnold will be his brother's best man. The ushers will include Messrs. Henry G. W. Parmelee, Harold J. O'Connell, John Randolph Grymes, Jr., brother of the bride, Bernard Shea and Paul J. Nowland.

In the Presbyterian Church, Irvington-on-Hudson, next Saturday afternoon Miss Katharine Black, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Deventer Black, will be married to Mr. Nicholas Ridgely Jones of this city. Many of their relatives and friends from this city will attend the wedding, and the reception which will follow at Bide-a-Vee, the home of the bride's parents in Irvington. Mrs. Spencer Schotter, who was Miss Marion Townsend, will be matron of honor. The other attendants will be Mrs. Graham Johnston, Mrs. Harold Vanderpool, Mrs. Henry Tate, Mrs. Philip Morgan of Brookline, Mass.; Miss Beatrice Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Witherby Black, and Miss Olive Irwin. Frances Hope will be flower girl.

Mr. James A. Jones of Springfield, Ill., will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Messrs. John R. Mores and Charles Ridgely of Boston, Louis Manierre of Chicago, Nicholas Roberts of Montclair, N. J.; Robert R. Howard of West Orange, George A. Washington, Robert Hall Ewell and William Penn Nixon.

After their wedding trip Mr. Jones and his bride will live at 114 East Eighty-fourth street.

This will be the second wedding in the family of Mr. and Mrs. Black in three months. Their elder daughter, Miss Dorothy Black, was married to Capt. Francis Murray Brady, United States Air Force, in Pasadena, Cal., on March 31.

Miss Black is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Prince of 44 West Seventy-seventh street, who will close the wedding the latter part of this month and go to Loon Lake, N. Y., for the summer.

The marriage of Mrs. Elsie Brown Jenkins, daughter of the late Frank Gould Brown and of Mrs. Brown of this city and Raybourn, Royton, Conn., to Mr. Walton Livingston Oakley will take place on June 23 at Whitwell Farm, the home in Darien, Conn., of Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Jacob, relative of the bride. New York guests will be taken to Darien on a special train and others will motor there from nearby country places. Mr. Oakley and his mother, Mrs. Walton L. Oakley, have just spent several weeks in this city with Mr. Philip Rhineclander, who is Mr. Oakley's cousin.

Mrs. William Reed Thompson of Sparhill on Hudson, who had sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Jean Richmond Thompson, to Mr. Thomas H. Eddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Eddy of Birmingham, Ala., the wedding will take place on Saturday at Sparhill.

Another bride of the week will be Miss Edmee Eloise Schaefer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Jay Schaefer of Beach Lawn, Larchmont, N. Y. She will be married to Mr. Paul Privibil of this city on Tuesday afternoon in St. Bartholomew's Church. The ceremony will be performed by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Judge, rector of St. Matthew's Church West Eighty-fourth street. A reception will be held at the Ritz-Carlton. Miss Schaefer has chosen Miss Peggy Reynolds for her maid of honor, and Mrs. Russell Ellis the Misses Lillian Robertson, Frieda E. Schaefer and Gertrude Hoffman for her other attendants. Capt. Frederick M. E. Schaefer, brother of the bride, will be best man. The ushers will be Messrs. John Bloodgood, Theodore Marceau, Jr., John Davison, Helmut Seibert and Richard J. Bernhardt.

Mr. Privibil and his bride soon after their wedding will sail for France, where they will spend the summer. On their return in the fall they will live in New York. Miss Schaefer is a fine musician and excels in outdoor sports. Mr. Privibil, who was graduated from Yale, was an officer in the Aviation Section, U. S. N., during the war.

In Christ Church, Babylon, L. I., on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Gladys Marguerite Wiltzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Longfellow Wiltzie, will be married to Mr. Louis Carman Estes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webster C. Estes. Mr. Buchanan Estes will be his brother's best man. The ushers will be Messrs. Irving D. Wiltzie, U. S. N., brother of the bride; Ensign Joseph P. Rockwell, U. S. N.; Mr. Clifford W. Estes and Mr. Ashburn E. Estes.

On the following day, Thursday, in St. Thomas Church, Miss Pauline Connor, daughter of Mrs. Edwin Douglas Hubbard of 211 West Ninety-seventh street, will be married to Mr. Howard Vanderlip McElowney, son of Mrs. John Howard McElowney of Bretton Hall, Va. The ceremony will be performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Lloyd Leach and will be followed by a reception at the Hotel Gotham. Miss Connor, who will be given away by Mr. Hubbard, has chosen Miss Barbara Paul of Brookline, Mass., for her maid of honor, and Miss Janet Ewing of Pittsburgh and Miss Genevieve McElowney, sister of the bridegroom, for her bridesmaids.

Mr. McElowney will have Mr. Brayton Morton of Philadelphia for his best man. The ushers will be Messrs. Donald G. Robinson and Mr. Thomas F. Robinson. They are all graduates of Harvard, of which Mr. McElowney is an alumnus.

Mr. McElowney and his bride will sail on June 25 for England to pass the summer.

In the Church of the Redeemer, Paterson, N. J., on Friday Miss Margaret Louise Beach, daughter of Mr. Henry M. Beach, will be married to Mr. Charles L. Auger, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Auger of Glen Acres, Ridgewood, N. J. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Women's Club of Paterson. Miss Beach was graduated from Dana Hall, Wellesley, and also from the Guild and Evans School in Boston. Mr. Auger is a graduate of Princeton.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Eaton Woodhouse, daughter of Mr. Lorenzo E. Woodhouse of 655 Park avenue, to Mr. Frederic William Procter, son of Mr. L. Sanford Procter of this city, will take place on Wednesday at Easthampton, L. I., where Mr. Woodhouse has a summer home. Miss Woodhouse's father is president of the Merchants National Bank of Burlington, Vt.

Miss Beale Ruth Simons, daughter of Mrs. Sanford Simons of 358 West Eighty-eighth street, will be married to Mr. L. Lawrence Stearns, of this city, to-morrow afternoon at the Hotel St. Regis. The ceremony will be performed at four o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Eugene Stearns, Jules Meyers, William Bleier, and Alfred Bernheimer.

Mr. Stearns, who is well known in musical circles, having been attached to several out of town newspapers as musical editor, during the war was head of the statistical department for the New York District Branch of the Ordnance Division.

The marriage of Miss Barbara Hazel Guggenheim, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Guggenheim of 270 Park avenue, to Mr. Sigmund Marshall Kemper, son of Mr. Adolph Kemper of 305 West End avenue, will take place to-morrow. Miss Guggenheim has been studying at Washington Square College, New York University, where she plans to continue her studies after her wedding. Mr. Kemper is with a banking concern in this city, and is a graduate of Columbia and a post-graduate of Harvard.

The marriage of Miss Inga Dessau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Dessau of 355 Park avenue, to Capt. Douglas Mill Saunders of Hertfordshire, England, formerly with a Bedfordshire regiment, will take place on Saturday in St. Luke's Church, Noroton, Conn. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the country home of the bride's parents.

On Thursday Miss Hortense New, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore New of 574 West End avenue, will be married to Mr. Lionel Hochwald of San Francisco. The wedding will take place at the Hotel St. Regis.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser M. Moffat of Short Hill, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jean Robertson, to Mr. Roger Warren Whitman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whitman.

Miss KATHARINE BLACK, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. HENRY VAN D. BLACK. SHE WILL BE MARRIED TO MR. NICHOLAS RIDGELY JONES, NEXT SATURDAY IN IRVINGTON-ON-HUDSON.

John C. Agar, the Secretary of State, Mr. Charles Evans Hughes, Mrs. Rita Lydig, Mrs. John Adams Drake, Dr. George S. Davis, president of Hunter College, State Senator Salvatore Colillo, Mrs. Henry J. Burchell, Miss Charlotte Blinham, Dr. Lyman Whitney Allen, Prof. Glen Levin Swiggett, Mrs. Annie M. T. Beecher, Mr. Percy MacKaye, Mr. Walter Littlefield, Mr. Augustine B. Moez, president of the College of the City of New York, and Prof. James S. Geddes, Jr.

Carroll Club Has Strawberry Festival
Members of the Carroll Club, at 120 Madison avenue, are intensifying their activities as the summer advances. Last night they had a strawberry festival and this afternoon there is to be a large tea party in the clubhouse. The monthly meeting for the members of the Auxiliary of the Madonna Day Nursery to-morrow will include the election of officers and plans for the fall. A special six weeks course in gym and dancing will be offered to club members and their friends during the summer. A mixer show by the Carroll Club auxiliary of the Madonna Day Nursery will be given on June 23.

MRS. J. PHILIP BENDARD
FORMERLY
MRS. ANNE SWINBURNE SCHIRMER, WIDOW OF
RUDOLPH E. SCHIRMER
PHOTO BY KAZANJIAN

Cottagers Arrive at Bar Harbor

Mrs. Dave Hennen Morris and Mrs. John S. Kennedy Open Summer Places.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
BAR HARBOR, Me., June 18.—Based upon the hotel bookings and the cottage rentals, which have been unusually large, the season gives promise of being the most successful ever known here. Quite a number of the cottagers have come for a few picnics in the old style, some mountain climbing, always a popular pastime with the annual visitors, golf and tennis serve to while away the days pleasantly.

Kobo Valley is ready for the season; its splendid golf links are in fine condition. Kobo affords a very sporty course. The annual State tournament will be held in August, and the Saturday handicaps will be an attractive feature for the golfers as for many years.

There is to be an effort here this summer to revive the use of the horse, and as a first step by arrangement with the local Chamber of Commerce Alfred James of Wellesley, Mass., will establish riding stables at Morrell Park, which is owned by the town. Mr. James will cooperate with the chamber in stage running races, trotting matches and gymkhana at the park, and it is hoped that sufficient interest will be aroused to permit a reestablishment of the Bar Harbor Horse Show for many summers.

Among those who have opened their summer homes are Mrs. Dave Hennen Morris, who has bought a cottage at Kobo, and Mrs. John S. Kennedy, Kenard Lodge; Mrs. Uelie H. Crocker, Uferheim; Mr. and Mrs. Victor N. Cushman and Dr. Wayman Cushman, Prof. and Mrs. Farrand and Mrs. Caldwell Jones, Reef Point; Mr. R. W. Gaw, Miss Gaw and Mr. H. L. Gaw, Edgfield; Mrs. A. Howard Hinkle, Dodge; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Livingston Fairview; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Moore, Woodlands; Mr. and Mrs. Barrington Moore, the Barnacles; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Proctor, Bournemouth; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schelling, Coffield; Mr. Richard Hale and family, the Hale cottage, Schooner Head; Miss Lucy Kutz, the Knolls; Mr. and Mrs. A. Murray Young, Mr. and Mrs. R. Hamilton Currier, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore, who were here on business connected with the motion picture industry, as he has been making a tour of Maine to obtain local favor for some scenarios that he has engaged to produce for a film company of which one time Gov. Milliken of Maine is the leading spirit.

Bar Harbor is to have a semi-professional baseball team this season, comprised of some of the best college baseball talent in New England.

MRS. ELSIE BROWN JENKINS, DAUGHTER OF MRS. FRANK GOULD BROWN. SHE WILL BE MARRIED TO MR. WALTON LIVINGSTON OAKLEY, JUNE 29.

Dante Pageant in Bernard Cloisters

To Be Preceded by Icelandic Tragedy Written by Mr. E. F. Coward.

Thursday and Friday afternoons of this week are to bring the performance of the Dante Pageant of the Dante League of America in George Gray Barnard's Cloisters, Fort Washington. The pageant is a stage production of the pageant's entire course, with original Dante music arranged by Miss Laura Seligwick Collins.

A one act Icelandic tragedy, written by Mr. Edward Fales Coward and with Mr. Coward in the leading role, will precede the pageant. Mrs. Heloise Durant Rose is staging the pageant from her drama "Dante," which was some years ago performed in Italy by Novelli. One of the first scenes will show the meeting in youth of the boy Dante and the girl Beatrice. Miss Rosamond Carroll will sing specially written music as well as Verdi's "Ave Maria," whose words are by Dante. Mrs. Florence Fairbrook will portray the "Spirit of the Trecento," and the "Heads" of Beatrice and Dante will be enacted by Mrs. Marsh Allen and Fritz Leiber. Mr. Claggett Wilson is stage director.

MISS EDMEE ELOISE SCHAEFER, DAUGHTER OF MR. AND MRS. RUDOLPH JAY SCHAEFER. SHE WILL BE MARRIED TO MR. PAUL PRIVIBIL IN ST. BARTHOLOMEW'S NEXT TUESDAY.

Among the patrons and patronesses are Mr. Lewis L. Clarke, Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Dr. Elmer Brown, Chancellor of the University of New York; the Rev. Dr. William A. Manning, Bishop of New York; Miss Winifred Holt, Mrs. Shepherd K. de Forest, Mrs. H. Mann of Cornell, Cyrus C. Miller, Alfred E. Smith, Thaddeus C. Sweet, Owen J. Stevens and Ellen Hooker.

MUSICALE AT SOUTHAMPTON STARTS THE ENTERTAINING

David Bispham's Recital at New Parrish Memorial Hall—Villas Being Opened in Delightful Weather—Gayety for Independence Day.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., June 19.—Southampton had its first entertainment of the season at Parrish Memorial Hall to-night when David Bispham, barytone, gave a musical and dramatic recital, assisted by Neville Huch of the summer colony, who has two groups of recitations, with musical setting, in costume. They had the assistance of Miss Emily Harford of New York, who played excellent piano accompaniments. The event was under the patronage of Miss Alvin W. Krech, George Barton French, Lucien H. Tyng, Lytleton Fox, Theodore Monell, Thomas Barber, Joseph Palmer Knapp and Louis Simmons. Memorial Hall is another gift from Mr. Samuel Parrish, who has already given to the town the lovely art museum, which attracts all visitors. The hall is a memorial to the Southampton men who fell in the world war, and it is to be used only for "entertainments of an instructive or artistic nature," at the request of its donor. The building was completed last fall and is a delightful acquisition.

Although no formal entertainments are announced to take place before the Fourth of July week-end, when the Meadow Club opens its season and when the season actually gets into full swing, a greater number of cottagers than usual are taking advantage of the glorious weather to open their cottages and give small dinners with the usual game of bridge.

Many new names are added weekly to the list of those renting, and among the most recent are Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte, who have been identified with Newport, but who have taken the gilded cottage here. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory, who have been identified with an apartment at the Ritz-Carlton, and who during their stay in New York have made many American friends, have rented the Kereh cottage, together with Princess Rosalind. Mr. Ikwolski is a member of a prominent Russian family, while Mme. Ikwolski was Miss Terry of Havana.

Mr. and Mrs. William Allen Butler, who own an attractive cottage but who have been absent frequently during past summers, have arrived with their daughter, Miss Louise T. Butler. Dr. Charles Butler and his bride will visit them during the season.

Still newer arrivals and rentals include Mr. Montague Flagg, Mr. Charles Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. B. Sumner Welles of Washington.

Mrs. B. Aymar Sands, Mrs. Charles T. Barney and Mrs. Joel Ehrhardt are among the recent arrivals at the Meadow Club.

Mrs. Newbold Edgar is making her usual month's stay at the Irving Hotel. Her daughter, Mrs. E. Stewart Davis, with Mr. Davis and their young son, is occupying the Rushes.

Mrs. J. G. K. Lawrence and Miss Eleanor Lawrence are spending a few days at the Irving.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry May have arrived from Washington at Gortmore.

Miss Juliana Cutting opened her cottage Monday and Miss Catherine Livingston arrived at her house Thursday. Others now installed in their cottages are Mr. and Mrs. Lytleton Fox, Dr. and Mrs. Henry James, Mr. and Mrs. Remond P. O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Franklin, Mrs. Charles R. Henderson, whose granddaughter, Miss Cornelia Robb, is visiting her; Mr. and Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Jr., whose parents are in Europe; Mrs. Arens Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. O. Root, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall H. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. George B. French, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien H. Tyng, Mr. George Warrington Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Newell W. Tilton, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall J. Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Clavin, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Baur, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Valentine.

Besides occupying her cottage on First Neck lane, Mrs. Valentine and her son, Mr. Anderson Valentine, are enjoying their recently completed camp at North Sea, where there is quite a colony of camps on Peconic Beach. Mrs. Valentine is the first of the summer colony to open a camp here, but the idea is already proving attractive to others as the location and view are most picturesque.

On June 20 Mr. Edward Condon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Condon, will marry Miss Caroline Stevens of Castle Point, Hoboken, member of the famous old Stevens family. Miss Stevens has been abroad since the publication of the engagement was published last spring, but will return in a few days. The wedding will attract many guests from Southampton, where the Condon family have a charming summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rufus B. Patterson have arrived at their cottage. Their son, Mr. Morehead Patterson, whose engagement to Miss Elsie Parsons was announced, is in England, where his fiancée and her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Clews, have gone to join him. Mr. Patterson is completing his studies at Oxford University and will be married to Miss Parsons in September in London.

Mr. Sydney S. Brees, who recently married Miss Paula Augusta Matner, has been for two weeks at Southampton. Mr. and Mrs. Albert V. Kew have arrived at their cottage Thursday, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Margaret Kew, whose marriage to Mr. William Sheffield Cowles, Jr., son of Rear Admiral Sir John Cowles, will take place on July 9 and will be one of the most important events of the season. A large reception and wedding breakfast will take place after the ceremony at Hedgecroft, where the bride and groom will be staying. Mr. and Mrs. Shepard Kew with their two children are staying at the Malldstone Inn until after the wedding, when they will sail for Europe.

Mr. John Turner Atterbury has been spending a few days at the Meadow Club.

Motor Parties at Hot Springs Dance for Charity at White Sulphur

Sojourners Find Diversion in Trips to Nearby Resorts—Arrivals.

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
HOT SPRINGS, W. Va., June 18.—The week at Hot Springs has been of varied interest. Mr. Thomas Nelson Page, formerly Ambassador to Italy, arrived from Washington for a visit with his brother-in-law, Mr. Harbour Lathrop of Chicago, and was accompanied by his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Lindsey of Boston.

Mrs. William H. Payne and his daughter, Miss Alice V. Payne, arrived from New York on Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Laura W. Bassett, Justice and Mrs. Charles L. Brown arrived early in the week from Philadelphia and on Tuesday motored to Covington Mountain.

Motoring, driving and riding have claimed much attention during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Delevan Wetmore of New York went by automobile to Warm Springs and inspected the excellent resort, which is now open for the summer. Mrs. Isaac W. Jones of Philadelphia motored daily and on Tuesday took her guests, the Misses Mary Ashcom and Anna P. Boulton to the Fishing Springs. Valley and later had tea on the Casino lawn. Miss Foulton started on Wednesday for Philadelphia. Col. Jacob M. Peters motored on Monday to Staunton with his wife, Mrs. James Ross Macdonald, on her way to the White Mountains, where she will pass the summer. Col. Peters returned to Hot Springs through the Gothen Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Kelly of New York are daily in the saddle. Mrs. Chester Williams had her last ride on Tuesday, going around Warm Springs Mountain. Mr. and Mrs. William closed their cottages on Wednesday and started for New York on their way to Murray Bay, Canada, where they will pass the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Heidekoper have opened the Tucker cottage for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bruce Howe have arrived at Nealing Springs where they will be a fortnight before going to Hot Lanes, Dunn, Jones and Valley have taken for July and August. Mrs. Howe is director of the Hot Springs chorus, which is to give several concerts during the summer period. Mrs. Henry Harrison S. Higbie is at the Homestead from Newark with Miss Kate H. Wallace. Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mers have arrived from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Jeffries have arrived from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. McMahon and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henderson from Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Ballinger from Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey A. Dewey are to arrive to-morrow.

Dance for Charity at White Sulphur

Special Despatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 18.—Considerable interest is being taken in the recently opened Community House and Library and many sojourners at the resort have taken time to raise funds for the new project.

The Washington financiers who held a three days' session here of combined business and sports gave a dinner, which was attended by about 200 guests. Speeches were made by Col. Robert N. Harper, president of the delegation; Messrs. George O. Watson and Thomas Buchanan. Following the dinner the visitors and most of the colonists attended a dance in the ballroom.

Mr. John Aspegren of New York gave a small and informal dance in the Greenbrier Hotel. Mrs. Daniel Bacon, mother of Mrs. Aspegren, has arrived for a visit of several weeks.

Mrs. George L. Carnegie, who arrived this week to join Mr. Carnegie, has been on the links daily. Other golfers have been Messrs. S. Frederick Mills and John Kenneth Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cawson, who is occupying a cottage with her mother, Mrs. Albert Cowan of Louisville; Col. James A. Blair, Jr.; Mrs. Horace R. Waters of Roanoke, who is spending some time at Mountain Home; Mrs. Quintard Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Francis D. Ellis.

Among the additions to the honeymoon colony recently were Mrs. Lee, Mrs. V. H. Schaeffer, who left for Atlantic City en route to Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Oberbacher who were here on their honeymoon. Mrs. Oberbacher was Miss Eddy George of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Barnes of Passaic, N. J., who were here earlier in the season, have returned to White Sulphur Springs after a visit at the New Jersey coast resort.

Mrs. Thomas E. Rutherford of Richmond, Va., is at a cottage in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Elliott of Washington is occupying one on Virginia Row with her sons, Warren G. Elliott and John P. Elliott. Mr. Elliott is a visitor for the week end.

BLACK PARTY AIDS WOUNDED.
There will be a black party under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of 165th Infantry (old Sixty-ninth) at Belmont place, near Fort Place, State House Square, evening, June 25. Tickets were 25 cents. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the wounded men of the 165th Infantry and Father Hanley Memorial Fund.